Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Silence In Heaven And The Butter-Woman And Other Wayside Stories are all short fictional stories originally written in the late 1800s by William McFarland whose pen name was Wayside. Thus I am putting his pen name of Wayside on all the writings by Wayside that I am turning into a book. William McFarland was one of my great, great, great grandpas on my father s side of the family. William McFarland was a writer as well as a school teacher and he was also a Union officer in the United States Civil War. It was William McFarland s original goal to have his stories and poems which he wrote published in book form but he did not live long enough to do so. It seems I was the one chosen to do just that. With the fast speed of the internet, imaging and home computers, now it is easier to accomplish this task. I only wish that he could see and know that his writings are finally being printed into book form by his family. Wayside has waited a very long time for his fictional stories and poems to be made into a book. This book is part of a series or collections of short stories and poetry written by Wayside and thus it is part of the WAYSIDE STORIES series of books. Since I was the one that was doing the genealogy of my family years ago and was contacting the various family members, I learned of William McFarland s Wayside writings. Being the family historian I am, I had to find them! Fortunately for me and my family I was able to find the relative...
