They should be able to express clearly and correctly the subject-matter of such selections. Beading and the other language exercises should enable the pupils to spell and punctuate correctly. Should the same faults often occur, the teacher must devote special attention thereto. Words alike in sound and foreign words in common use demand special drill. In penmanship the German and Latin scripts are practiced at stated hours. Proverbs and sayings of the people serve as copies. Pupils must learn to write neatly and legibly. The different forms of sentences are studied with reference to punctuation; parts of speech; the formation and use of participles; the declension of adjectives with and without definite and indefinite articles; the declension of pronouns; prepositions and their uses; government of verbs and adjectives;...
