To The President and Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb; Gentlemen: - The Special Committee which was appointed at the Stated Meeting of the Board held March 5th 1884 to collect information about former pupils of the Institution begs leave to submit the following report: The Resolution which was adopted on the above date sufficiently defines the Committee s duties. It reads as follows: Resolved that the Committee on Instruction be requested to collect information as to the lives and occupations of the pupils who have left the Institution during the past ten years particularly in reference to the following points: Whether by reason of their training in the Institution they have been placed upon a higher social level than they would otherwise have occupied. How far that training has fitted them for intercourse with hearing and speaking persons, and in what way it can be improved with a view to such intercourse.
