BRAISWICK, United Kingdom, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Green Wellies and Wax Jackets will appeal to anyone who has ever ridden a horse, attended a riding school, fallen in love with a handsome man. Imagine Cinderella, the two ugly sisters, and a domineering stepmother transported to a stable yard, and the day-to-day running of a riding school. Add a film crew, one drop-dead-gorgeous actor, and a determined film producer, and you have the setting for Green Wellies and Wax Jackets - a hilarious romp through the world of show jumping and equestrian activities. Lewis Trevelyan wants a competent rider to star in his latest action film and Ursula Johnson, proprietor of Hollyfield Stables and Stud, thinks she has just the girl (or girls) for him, in the shape of her two ungainly daughters, Vanessa and Caroline. Lewis, however, has spotted another girl riding the cross-country course - a girl who intrigues him much more, and he will do anything (well, almost anything), to track her down. Morag is the winner of the BBC Look East final entry for the online short story, and has written short stories, published in women s magazines - Woman s story, True Romances, Woman s Weekly and others. She reached the final twenty in the BBC End of Story competition last year (for Fay Weldon s short story) out of 17,000 entrants and was in the final three of Sunday People/Heartline books write a novel competition.
