The giant birds of old, especially those of New Zealand, had to dig up tough roots, and to get over tall ferns and low scrub. As their weight rendered flying impossible, they had to walk; hence the wingless birds were long-legged, strong-toed, and had hairy-feathers. A WONDERFUL COUNTRY. On looking at a map of North America, a large river, called the Colorado of the North, will be seen to flow from the Rocky Mountains into the Gulf of California, on the western side of tjfie continent. Inonep-rt of its course the river passes through one of the most wonderful countries in the world. There are vast plains, rising one beyond the other like enormous steps, and they extend for great distances. Range after range of cliffs,...
